

ABSTRACT

A security service for an electronic marketplace that permits members of the marketplace to use any signing service to attach electronic signatures to documents resident on the marketplace regardless of format differences between the member's internal computer system and the electronic marketplace.

100-200-300-400-500-600-700-800-900-000